SUMMARY

An undergraduate student at university of lucknow who is purely fascinated by astrophysics.

I'm a tech savvy, a debater and a public speaker. I'm an avid learner and have an intermediate knowledge of python, java and SQL.

I'm an optimist who likes photography content creation and writing , I like to explore the limits of my potential in every field.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of arts : English, psychology and anthropology   Oct 2022 - Present
University of lucknow

A great environment with NAAC's A++ grading.
It gave me the exposure in all forms, from academic competition to cultural fests varying from debates, quizzes, open mics, street theatres literary and judicial experiences, that will help me achieve a bright future.

Intermediate: PCM and computer science   May 2020 - Jun 2022
Lucknow public school   8.7:

Highschool: Science with computer science   May 2018 - Apr 2019
Lucknow public school   91.8%

INTERNSHIP

Proofreader   Jan 2020 - Jul 2020
Bishara publications , Lucknow

While working for my first publishing house at the age of 16 , I caught up some great skills like perserverance and patience, because getting the ISBN wasn't any easy task. It was overall a great start to my next venture.

Editor and co-author   Nov 2020 - May 2021
Poetry world organization , India

It was my best experience in the field of publishing and books.
The most important thing that still works in my life was a boon from this place, that is : a decision taken in haste is a regret everlast.
It was the home of my second anthology.

Coordinator   Jan 2022 - Present
Kavyom, India

Currently working for the a sub-branch of the cultural society of university of lucknow. Learning to grow in a collective group and taking the responsibilities collectively.

It is also accounting to my levels of tolerance in the growing intolerant world.

🎲 PROJECTS

Digital passbook and library management.   Nov 2020 - Dec 2021

In my intermediate, I along with my two batchmates designed an app with it's front end language as python and back end being SQL, it was named as "Digital passbook".
We were also awarded by the principal and I'm glad to say that the library management system that my school is currently using was designed by us.

Mission shakti   Jan 2022 - Jul 2022

 The fourth phase of Mission Shakti was organised in Lucknow University. I co-ordinated the events in a best possible way not only in arts department but also in fine arts and commerce department.
